Rare Villa St

While the wife was cleaning house this spring, a box full of old stamps was unearthed, and it was found to contain several hundred sets of the interesting Mexican Revenues that were issued when Villa was rampant in Mexico.

The illustration herewith shows the set. The values we have are complete, from the 1 centavo to the 500 peso value. This set usually is offered at from 25c to 50c or even more when in the market. During the period in which it was issued, copies were sometimes used postally. It is a very interesting set, and is known as the Denver issue, because it was printed by a large lithograph house in Denver, Colorado, for the Villa Government.

> The Set is Worth, Easily, 50c of Any Collector's Money, and all are Nice Clean Mint Copies

As has been our custom in the past, we want to put this set in the hands of the friends of our publication. None of them can be bought at any price. The only way you can get one of these sets is to send us a NEW SUBSCRIPTION, at the regular rate of 25c for U. S. and Colonies, or 75c for Canada and toreign, and then remit 10c additional for the set. If you want them in pairs or blocks, you can send a pair, or a block of four sub-scriptions and 20c or 40c, as the case may be, for the pairs or blocks of stamps.

If you want one of these sets, get busy at once and ask a friend for his subscription. It is easy to get the subscription if you will show them a copy of our paper and tell them how little it costs. Do not wait until the stamps are all gone. We have about 600 or 700 sets. When they are gone we can not get more.

Linn's Weekly Stamp News, 20 E. Chestnut St., Columbus, O.

Those Commens, not only went suddenly out of issue, but all remainders were destroyed, so you who bought them got a good bargain. Congratulations!

Red Cross Plate Numbers

By Ralph A. Kimble

HE interest developing in this fascinating specialty is a lready growing to large proportions. As you know from last week's news there are known to be twenty bleek plets and twenty worth.

black plates and twenty red ones, making possible 400 combinations. During the past week we have had reported the following combinations as having been located:

	Black	Red	Black	Red
	20434	20445	20438	20445
		20446	66	20447
	44	20447	6.6	20448
	64	20449	44	20149
	20435	20446	44	20498
	44	20447	20439	20445
	64	20495	20440	20445
	20436	20445	44	20446
	88	20447	6.6	20489
		20490	44	20495
	20437	20445	20441	20145
		20446	44	20449
11	44	20447	44	20494
	4.0	20449

It should be noticed that all the black numbers are confined thus far to the first eight plates, while in the red ones used there are ten thus far, and they are scattered thru the first fifteen of the plates thru the first fitteen of the plates assigned. It is going to be a very pretty problem to find out just what combinations are used, but with the great cooperation we have received and the greater which we will receive it will not be a very difficult task. Any of you who have in your possession combinations which have not yet appeared in this paper will benefit yourselves and others by reporting them to me.

The question has been asked as to how these plate blocks should be collected. Suit yourself, but the great majority seem to be collecting them simply in blocks of four, including both black and red numbers. The only other way of any interest would be in blocks of ten (two deep by five wide) to include the word TOP in black or red, but this makes an ungainly looking block with no particular advantage to be derived. You can tell easily which pane the block comes from by the relative posi-tion of the red and black numbers and also by the initial "F" which appears by both numbers on the RIGHT pane only. In case any freak appears in which numbers or the word TOP is either omitted or double, the entire block of ten should of course be saved. A sharp watch should also be kept for inverted crosses, for while it is unlikely, yet the error could easily happen, as the only difference would be that the cross would appear in the lower right instead of the upper left corner of the stamp. Plate numbers would of course be misplaced also in that case.

The above listed combinations have been reported by the followmaye been reported by the informing friends: A. E. Houck, Evelyn M. Smith, Fred Geyer, Spence D. Chapman, Wm. LaRue, John B. Hardig, George R. Zage, Earl Krueger, Wm. Weinstock, James Farish and two other anonymous helpers. Thank you! Keep it up. And remember that as soon as enough of you indicate your interest we will start the central clearing house for these blocks whereby you may dispose of your duplicates and secure wanted numbers. Address all information and questions to Ralph A. Kimble, 8118 Dante Ave., Chicago, Ill.

STAMP AND COIN CARNIVAL AT JAMESTOWN

The Chautauqua Coin, Stamp and Curio Club of Jamestown, New York, has planned a big Tri-State meeting of stamp, coin and curio collectors for Friday and Saturday, June 12 and 13, at Jamestown. Headquarters, Hotel James-

The program includes an exhibition of coins, stamps and curios, an auction on Friday night and a banquet on Saturday night.

At the meeting last year there were 78 attendants and it is hoped that this year will bring at least 100. All collectors in the vicinity of Jamestown are urged to attend. Everyone will be welcome and you will have a very enjoyable time.

This meeting is sponsored by Chautauqua Coin, Stamp and Curio Club which holds regular meet-ings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 p. m. at the Hotel Jamestown.

James T. Clarke is chairman of the Committee for this meeting and extends a personal invitation to every collector in this vicinity to be present and to bring your lady with you. Everyone will be

= A FORECAST AND A RECORD :

Swift to Report

➤ Straight to Record

Timely, authentic and complete information on new issues, unlisted varieties, projected philatelic events, etc., is the aim of this department. We will deeply appreciate all contributions of this nature from our readers, and full credit will be given in each case. All contributions should if possible be accompanied by specimens of the stamps concerned, which will be returned promptly.

Edited by - - - RALPHA. KIMBLE - Chicago, Illinois

UNITED STATES - Information on the Red Cross Commemorative is handled in a special article elsewhere in this issue. We notice that the Bureau Issues Association mentions in Philatelic Gossip that three other plates, 20442-3-4 have been assigned to the red part of this stamp. When combinations are reported in which these numbers appear we will list them. They have not been officially listed yet.
From the same source it is reported that the plate numbers for the Yorktown stamp have been assigned. This is to be a two-colored stamp also, due to appear about October 21st of this year, and the numbers as reported will border This makes nineteen plates and sixteen center plates, so there will probably be a few more assigned to bring it to twenty of each. The Yorktown being a large stamp, the size of our present special delivery according to advance notice, they will be printed in sheets of 100, probably divided into panes of fifty as were the George Rogers Clark. That will make an-other frantic plate number hunt.

AUSTRALIA -- In addition to the new air-post stamp coming in the near future there is forecast a new commemorative postage stamp to mark the opening of the new bridge in Sydney Harbor.

(Stamp Collectors' Fortnightly)

BELGIAN EAST AFRICA There is to be a new and definitely designed series of postage stamps issued within the next few weeks. Plates have already been prepared and the few specimen designs we have seen indicate a very striking set of stamps. They are to be engraved and printed by the Institut de Gravure in Paris, which insures a handsome piece of work. Sixteen denominations from 5c to 20f will comprise the series, with a total face value of about 50 francs (Belgian).

(L'Echo de la Timbrologie)

BOLIVIA - It is definitely reported that the beautiful Centenary series of 1925 (No. 150-9) is to be overprinted, possibly for airpost use, tho this has not been affirmed. All ten values will be so treated, and as the remainders of this series are not large the provisionals will be few in number. Sale is to be limited to three sets per person - maybe!

(Stamp Collecting)

CHILE-A new set of air-post stamps for use on internal air lines only, is forecast for immediate issuance. The rate has been reduced somewhat so that probable values are 25c, 60c, 1p and 2p.

(Stamp Collecting)

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC - A new series of postage stamps, and two provisional airs are predicted. In view of the racket conducted by this place with its red-cross stamps we are not particularly thrilled by any new emissions.

(A. C. Roessler)

DUTCH INDIES-It is reliably reported that the recent 12½ on 20c blue postage provisional has been thus overprinted on stamps printed in fugitive ink as well as on the ordinary ink printings.

(Stamp Collecting)

EGYPT-An interesting analysis of the recent Zeppelin issue shows that of the 25,000 sets issued there were about 15,550 used and disposed of in various ways, leaving only 9,450 unused sets to fill the demand of collectors. This is indeed a small supply.

ITALIAN COLONIES-The recent St. Anthony of Padua issue of Italy has been reprinted in different colors and overprinted for use in the four colonies of Cyrenaica, Eritrea, Italian Somaliland and Tripolitania. NETHERLANDS - The latest printings of the 1g and 5g postage values are perf. 121/2 around instead of the former 111/2. The 9c value is to be withdrawn and a new 36c value is to be issued soon.

NEWFOUNDLAND-With reference to the current 15c air-post stamp on watermarked paper it should be noted that many of these also exist on UNWATER-MARKED portions of the same sheets, due to the watermark design not being big enough to cover all stamps of the sheet. A surer method of telling the original unwatermarked variety, now very scarce, is that it has smooth, heavy gum, while the second printing has a crackly gum. The paper also appears to be slightly lighter in weight.

SAN MARINO-A new entrant in the air-post stamp arena! The U. S. A. can get along nicely with one air-stamp value, and Great Britain struggles along happily with none at all, but it takes the little fellows to make the big Here comes San Marino, almost big enough to find with a powerful microscope, bringing us a set of TEN air stamps! Just why they need them is not clear. They will have to go over to some friendly neighboring nation to find room for an air-port, but it's all the fashion now, so air-stamps they must have. Well, at least they will be pretty pictures for Bradbury, Wilkinson & Co. will do them with their usual fine workmanship. Values are to range from 50c to 10L and they are due by now. Help yourself.

SPAIN - Regarding the new provisional overprints recorded recently there is an official notice that the Republican Council of Madrid produced the overprint "REPUBLICA" and issued the overprinted stamps on April 15th. These were withdrawn on April 25th, when it was found that the Republican Councils Spain intended to use a similar overprint. The national printers have been instructed to overprint all stocks which they hold with the words "REPUBLICA ESPAN-OLA". Stocks of the unsur-charged stamps at other postoffices in the country will not be withdrawn, so it may be months before the overprint comes into general use. In the meantime it is possible that local overprints may be applied as in the case of China. (The Philatelic Magazine)

SUDAN - The famous Arab postman type in use for so many years may become obsolete, as new designs of a pictorial nature are being seriously considered by the authorities.

NEGRO STAMP CROOK ARRESTED

Numerous newspaper clippings regarding the final and belated ar-rest of J. Franklin Johnson, negro, of Baltimore and other cities charged with defrauding collectors and dealers in all parts of the country, are at hand from numerous sources.

Johnson operated under fortyone different names, so postal in-spectors state. He was arrested in a rooming house on Lombard Street, near 20th in Philadelphia.

Operating under numerous different names, under some of which he carried on business in an honorable manner, he would then ap-ply for stamps under other names and give his own aliases as references and of course he always rec-ommended himself as reliable. By this method he obtained thousands of dollars worth of stamps from many different sources.

He frequently used names of collectors and one name which he used was that of Mr. Stephen S. Ridgely of Baltimore. Mr. Ridgely sends a letter which has a bearing on the subject and we feel that it is desirable to print this letter which is appended herewith. Collectors who have been defrauded can address Mr. Ridgely at 3121 can address Mr. Ridgely at 3121

Brighton St., Baltimore, Md.
In a later letter from Mr.
Ridgely, he states that he wants to hear from everyone who has been defrauded by Johnson with a full description of material that was sent Johnson. Mr. Ridgely states that he believes that fully 75% of the material can be identified and returned to the rightful owners by the P. O. Department, if proper identification of approval books can be made.

"I have been the victim of a colossal scheme in which the attached clipping is explanatory This man used my name and S. P. A. number to buy thousands of dollars worth of stamps, all over not use my name while in Balti-more, but assumed it after he went to Philadelphia.

Together with Mr. Brill, the local P. O. inspector I went over his correspondence which was seized and I find that he obtained my name and number, thru my having answered his fake ads. in the New York Times, Linn's and other magazines. The P. O. Dept., has hundreds of approval books, sheets, collections and I don't know what, that they took from

He seems to have had mailing privileges everywhere and answered his own references and surely did get away with lots of material.

I shall do all within my power to prosecute him for forgery and whatever else I can do.

Inspector Brill has told me that I might say that the Government has made a careful investigation and finds that I am an innocent victim of his schemes.

Please publish this and if necessary I will gladly pay for a half page ad. or whatever is necessary. I want all the publicity possible in clearing my name. I suppose it will take a long while to undo all the harm he has caused me.

Since my name and address does not appear in the current S. P. A. list, I joined after the last issue was published, he used me pretty badly, as he would give the name and number and there was no way to check the fictitious address.

Stephen S. Ridgely,"

Perhaps one of the most informative accounts from the newspapers is supplied by Mr. Ridgely and this is reproduced below.

"An elaborate scheme through which it is alleged legitimate stamp dealers from coast to coast were being swindled was interrupted yesterday by Postoffice inspectors with the arrest in Philadelphia of a Baltimore Negro, who is said to have been the head of a spurious philatelic concern.

The prisoner is J. Franklin Johnson, 32, of 623 Sewell street. described as a former instructor at a Negro university in the South. This was his second arrest on charges of using the United States mails to defraud. In 1929 he pleaded guilty to such a charge and served part of a two-year sensity of the second served part of a two-year sensity of the second served part of a two-year sensity of the second served part of a two-year sensity of the second served part of a two-year sensity of the second served part of the second second served part of the second second served part of the second se tence in the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta.

At that time he was conducting a so-called typing, correcting, revising and editing service for young authors. After the penal term at Atlanta he allegedly turned to the stamp business and opened an office in Detroit. For reasons unknown to the inspectors, Johnson soon abandoned Detroit headquarters and established himself in Baltimore as the Plymouth Stamp Mart, in the 500 block Burgundy street.

Next, according to the investigators, he set up two fictitious offices in New York City, two in Chicago and one in Providence,

When these offices got under way, it was said, he set up under two more names in Baltimore, both of the supposed companies operating from an address in the 400 block West Biddle street. Later he moved both of these and the original Plymouth Company to his

Under each of the various company names, inspectors said, Johnson would order stamps from big dealers, representing himself as an agent for a high-class trade. He would give another of his various company names as reference and then, in the guise of the other company, would give himself a good business recommendation. which usually brought the desired supplies of stamps.

In March of this year his ac-tivities were investigated by Postoffice Inspector G. E. Brill, of Baltimore, and an indictment was returned against him by a Federal grand jury on March 19. Johnson, apparently apprised of the jury action, fled the city.

He was discovered a few days ago in Philadelphia where, according to officials he had started the stamp business anew, operating various out-of-town branches as he had done from Baltimore. On in-structions from Mr. Brill, A. T. Hawksworth, Philadelphia inspector, made the arrest. Johnson will be brought to Baltimore, probably tomorrow, for trial.'

LAST DAY COVERS

It is not possible that stamp collectors can get last day covers of postage stamps except of course in event of such issues as may be demonetized by Government action, when a cover used on the last day in which the stamps were available for postage would be of historical interest in a museum of postal history. Such things however, are not likely to happen in these United States.

First day covers of stamps are plentiful, last day covers of stamps are not possible yet covers used at some postoffice on the last day of use of that postoffice are of in terest in a historical collection and such a cover comes to our office from Mr. Roy R. Waters of Great Barrington, Mass. This cover bears one of the late Mass. Bay Colony stamps and is cancelled at West Otis, Mass. on May 15, the last day in which the postoffice at this town was open for business.

LINDY IS FORGOTTEN

An Air Mail letter addressed solely with the word "WE" has recently been through the dead letter office and returned to the writer for lack of sufficient address. It is therefore evident that Lindy needs a new press agent or probably the Colonel is glad to get out of the limelight for a bit for the youngster must be about able to walk by this time.

INDIANA STAMP CLUB MEETS AT COLUMBUS

Two very interesting stamp collections were exhibited Friday evening, May 22, when the Indiana Stamp Club made a pilgrimage to Columbus, Ind., to meet with interested collectors there. The collections belonged to George Vorwald and George Unger, both of Colum-

Mr. Unger displayed a block of 100 old 3-cent U. S. stamps which now catalog $1.75 single.

Among the 50 persons present at the meeting was Mrs. Grace Duckwall, of Indianapolis, probably the state's most ardent woman collector. Mrs. Duckwall showed a beautiful album of U. S. stamps. Marion F. Clarke, secretary of the country of the state of t state club, exhibited a book of commemoratives. J. Lester Wil-liams displayed a specialized collection of George Rogers Clark commemoratives. Air mail covers were shown by Glenn M. Pagett, while W. H. Wylie, of Columbus, had some very old U. S. stamps. Floyd Shockley's collection of registrations of the control tered mail covers was outstanding.

There were a number of ladies present who showed much enthusiasm over the display. Mr. Vorwald, who was in charge of local arrangements for the meeting, stated that the Columbus group planned to organize soon, and that they expected about 100 members, most of whom will be boys. Out-of-town collectors present were Clarence S. Cook, Clifford; James Pease, Boyd Gill, Edinburg; Raymond Hinshaw, Carmel; Marion F. Clarke, Everett R. Ryan, Dr. Ert J. Rogers, Glenn M. Pagett, Joseph H. Zix, B. G. Bushnell, Raymond H. Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Goold, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Petri, and Brice Taylor, all of Indianapolis. The Indianapolis guests chartered a special bus.

Iced drinks were served by the entertaining group of collectors. -Boyd Gill.

A NEW IDEA FOR GENERAL COLLECTORS

A Brooklyn dealer has a novel way to build up general collections at a minimum of expense. He sends you an entire collection in an album to select from at 70% dis. This does not pay him unless you are willing to select $10 or over net. If your collection is under 25,-000 you will have no trouble in selecting $10 worth.

This method gives you access to thousands of stamps rarely seen in approval selections. The name of the firm is International Stamp Shop, 885 Flatbush Ave., Brook-lyn, N. Y. (Adv.)

STRANGE, BUT TRUE

By Capt. A. C. Townsend

In 1921 I was in Philadelphia overnight, and during the evening dropped in at the main post office to try to make friends with a stamp clerk and see if he happened to have any stamps worth buying. Once in a while I have had luck and gotten some quite nice old issues that way.

Business was quiet and the clerk and I got quite chummy, altho he had nothing to offer me. But he told me that a number of years before a very crabbed looking old geezer, as he put it, had come to his window one night, shoved in a block of 5c 1861s and asked him to exchange them for 2c stamps.

"I told him it was against the rules to do so,' said the clerk, and he got quite angry. They were government issued stamps, he said, and he could see no reason why the government would not ex-change them for stamps he could

"I am not a collector, but I knew the stamps were of value," went on the clerk, "and I remembered where there was a dealer down on Chestnut Street, so I started to tell him to take them down there, when he broke in on me testily."
"I didn't ask you what to do with them. I want to know if you will give me two cent stamps for them-that's all I want to know."

"I was mad myself by then, so I told him no, but that I would buy them myself, and then he could use the money and buy his two cent stamps. He snorted indignantly at this, said something about hocuspocus and shoved the stamps back to me again. I handed him forty cents from my pocket. He tried to wave the money back, but I shoved it out, tore off 20 two cent stamps and made him push the money back before I gave him the stamps, which he grabbed and went off with, still muttering to himself in indignation.'

"What did you do with the stamps?" I asked. "Took 'em down at noon next day to that dealer myself, and he gave me $80.00 for them. Always hoped the old crab would find some more and bring them in, but he never did. He would have had that $80 if he had acted half way decent!"

In 1922 I was in Philadelphia again and again went into the post office one night to see if that clerk was on duty. There was a strange face at the window when I went up to it, and before I could speak the clerk said to me "Hello! Say, I've got those 1c Pilgrims for you, but they are not very good."

I was astonished, as you can imagine. However, I held a straight face and simply replied "That's too bad. Any good ones in the lot?"

"Just 12 sheets. I went over them all last night and all the rest are badly centered."

"Much obliged to you, anyhow," I replied. "Well, I'll take one sheet with me and be in tomorrow or next day for the balance."

So he handed me out a sheet of the stamps and I paid for them and thanked him again and walked off. And I have had a lot of fun since thinking of the incident and trying to picture the conversation that took place when the real man turned up and asked the clerk about the stamps—Find any of those stamps for me? Did I find any? You were here last night any? You were nere last night and I told you I had 12 sheets for you and—You're crazy, I wasn't in here! Don't try to kid me; you took one sheet and said you would apply the try the yest. come back tonight for the rest. Say, listen! (And so on, and so

Memphis, Tenn. Ord. 11/2 FV.

The above by C. C. Fisher of Nashville, who surely takes care of Tennessee for this column. Thanks

We have received from our publisher, G. W. Linn, a sample sheet of the new bureau print album. This is an entirely new idea and after a little experimental mounting we hope to have an opinion for the readers.

We were fortunate enough to secure the buro oddity collections of Messrs. Thresher and Black of Kansas City less of course their favorite state Missouri. Many new interesting items turned up and we hope to pass the interesting news on from time to time.

B. G. Bushnell favors this column with a number of nice buro oddities from the home city. Among a number of the old type 6c compounds we note a break not mentioned heretofore. A plate break or scar that starts in the middle of the first "I" of Indianapolis and continues diagonally down thru the base of the "I" of Ind.

Lawrence Bros. give notice of what is to be their largest and best auction sale dated June 18th, 1931. Heavy with 499 lots of general U. S. as well as some fine buros. We note the Springfield experimentals complete except for one item. The scarce 1c perf 10 Okla, Okla. both in single and block. Athol and Milwaukee erblock. Athol and Milwaukee er-rors. Your catalog is waiting for you at Anamosa, Iowa.

One of these fine weeks we will be off duty. In other words we are lucky enough to get a vacation (and paid for it) from our regular work and we shall vacate even to the extent of bureau prints. May-be we can coax G. W. Linn to fill in a bit for the week.

EDITORIALS

Every now and then FRAUDS the newspapers print a story of the arrest of some individual whom the Post Office Inspectors have found out after a year's time, more or less, have been defrauding stamp collectors and dealers on a wholesale scale through the United States Mails. There may be a reason why these Postoffice Inspectors work so slowly, possibly there are so few of them that they do not have time to act faster than they do. If such is the case we would like to suggest that a large corps of the Prohibition Snoopers be put on this more important job.

Stamp dealers and collectors frequently come to the conclusion that a certain party at some certain address is a fraud. This conclusion is arrived at in a very simple way. When from six to a dozen different people send goods to a man and fail to get either an an-swer to mail or a settlement of the obligation, that is sufficient proof that the party is unreliable and should give sufficient cause for very quick investigation and action on the part of the Postoffice De-partment, yet it takes many months for them to get down to business and in the meantime the fraud is continuing his work under another name.

The case of J. Franklin Johnson, Baltimore negro, has recently oc-cupied space in the daily papers, yet this man under some of the various aliases that he has used has been listed and placed on the questionable list of the American Stamp Dealers Association for many months.

Over a year ago, under one of his aliases, this publication printed an advertisement for this party. This advertisement has never been This advertisement has never been paid for. It might be said in our own defense that only the one advertisement was published, further copy not being published for lack of suitable references, etc. Yet this first piece of copy that was published bore all the earmarks of a reputable and high class business reputable and high class business. The original copy itself, as submitted for publication, was probably the finest prepared of any piece of advertising copy that has ever been submitted to us for publication.

We deplore the snail like speed that seems to be employed by Postoffice Inspectors in situations of this sort. A bit more speedy ac-tion would cut losses in half in many cases and we hope there will be found a way to speed up the work on these rackets.

KENWOOD An advertise-S. MOORE CO. ment under this name was carried in Linn's Weekly for several weeks. Our inability to collect for the advertising account led us to discontinue the advertisement. Failure to hear from the address to which we sent letters was also a cause for discontinuing the advertisement. At the same time we have had numerous letters from parties who submitted goods to this address and who have been unable to get either a return of their goods or a settlement for the same. We have placed the entire matter in the hands of the American Stamp Dealers Association and have requested that they make every effort to secure adjustment for our readers who have submitted stamps to this company.

If there are others who have had business with this company and have failed to have satisfactory replies to their letters we will be glad to have a complete statement of the matter mailed to our office.

Perhaps a better way would be to write a complete statement of your business with this company, describing in detail any stamps you may have submitted them and mail the same to the secretary of the American Stamp Dealers As-sociation, Mr. V. W. Rotnem, 22nd Floor, 22 Exchange Place, New York City.

QUESTIONABLE In a plea for ARGUMENT the Society of Philatelic Americans to issue it own Official Organ one of the exponents of this idea makes numerous statements which members of the society will do well to consider and think over very carefully before accepting the statements at their face value. Many of the arguments are without facts behind while others are ridiculous.

Perhaps the one argument that the gentlemen would have best left out of the picture is the one in which he attempts to rouse unfriendly feeling between collector and dealer.

In Philately, one is as necessary as the other, Philately could never have attained the heights it has reached without the commercial side. It is the commercialization of Philately that has made it the greatest hobby in the world. The man who attempts to attack Philately from this angle is resorting to trickery that will back fire against him as it should.

Do not be tricked into this matter of a Society Official Organ by such talk as this man has given you. His claim that a 16-page paper can be produced for the society for about $100 per number is only a small part of the cost. Your own official organ will cost you much more than you are now

EDITED BY H. G. KINGDOM, CONNEAUT, OHIO This department belongs to our readers and we ask you to send all information received to the Editor as soon as possible and same will be acknowledged

New Mail Routes:

Official announcement Washington is to the ffect that on June 15th, air mail service will be extended from Nashville, Tenn., via Memphis, Tenn., Little Rock and Texarkana, Ark., to Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas. Also from Memphis, Tenn., via Jackson, Miss., to New Orleans, La. The first extension being operated by Colonial Western Airways, and the latter by Southern Transcontinental Air-Special cachets will undoubtedly be supplied to postmasters at Memphis, Little Rock and Texarkana, but all others have previously had service.

Official advices state there will be cachets from all above cities except Jackson and two different ones for the flights from Memphis.

Consideration is being given by the department to the establishment of a mail route from Cincinnati, Ohio, via Portsmouth, Huntington, Wheeling and Pittsburg, but no decision has yet been given.

Trans-Atlantic:

With regard to the American terminus on the seaboard, Mr. Glover recently announced that there has been no change in the arrangements. That the decision making Charles, S. C., the terminus, six months ago, still stands, and that the department is working out the details, and will call for bids, just as soon as possible.

Commander MacMillan will soon depart with a Lockheed-Vega monoplane for Nain, Labrador, where he will map the coast-line of this country and from which place he plans to fly to England and return. MacMillan and Rocheville, his pilot, in his plane called the "Viking" expect to visit Greenland, Iceland and Faroe Islands and demonstrate the possibilities of this northern trade route. Information on covers of this flight can be obtained from W. T. Politz, 24 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

Red Cross Covers:

The new Red Cross stamp is very attractive and probably the largest number of First Day covers were sent from Washington and Dansville of any stamp yet. Many special envelopes of much beauty were used. W. G. Crosby had one showing a Red Cross Surgical Ward. Cleveland Air Mail Society one showing a large Red Cross and picture of Clara Barton. Hacker one showing Cross and 50th Anniversary. Jos. Miller one with very appropriate printing. J. W. Stoutzenburg, one with fine photo of Miss Barton. E. G. Emerson card with printed cachet and many original Red Cross Christmas seals and American Dental Assn. seals. C. L. Elliott a fine cover with photos of Barton and Judge Payne. Also covers of May 21st. from Cleveland, also Air Mail Field, Syracuse, Scranton, Bath, New York, Conneaut, Ohio, and many other places. One most interesting is an air mail cover with block of Four, postmarked at Red Cross, Pa., from W. D. Hennessy, Jr. Thanks to all friends. and by the way, have you noticed how the Red Cross on this stamp moves around on the various stamps. It touches the word postage, it rests on her shoulder, or her hand and on some moves over to the left frame.

On May 24th, Jas. D. Cleveland, pilot on the New York-Cleveland mail route crashed near Bellefonte, Pa., losing his life and reports state that all of the 1000 pounds of mail was destroyed.

Shirley J. Short, well known pilot, lost his life in an accident to the Chicago-News plane of which he was chief pilot.

More Hintons:

June 22nd. at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, send to F. J. Cooper, Secy. Exchange Club—June 27th. at Easton, Pa., send to H. J. Baer, 2nd and Ferry Sts.—June 29 and 30, at Cooperstown, N. Y., send to Exchange Club-Sometime in June at Erie, Pa., and you may send covers to me. We understand cachets are assured for all of these.

Berlin-Shanghai:

Service on this route will be launched this month touching at Moscow, Omsk, Siberia, Manchuria and Peiping.

Syracuse, N. Y.

C. Lacombe writes that that city goes on New air route on June 15th, and that the city will be host to Lt. Hinton on June 27th. Also that he will be glad to handle cov-ers for both of these events. Address him at 1800 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y.

Little Rock, Ark.

John A. Jungkind, 114 West Fourth St. advises that they already have over 1000 covers for their airport opening which he thinks will be July 1st., however, due to addition of that city to the mail route on June 15, I gamble they will have their opening on that day.

Third Mich. Air Tour:

Itinerary as follows: June 18th, leaves Grand Rapids, Marshall, Pontiac—19th, Port Huron, Mid-land—20th, Cadillac, St. Ignace— 21st, Manistique, Escanaba—22d, Meniminee, Crystal Falls—23d, Ironwood—24th, Ontonagon, Hancock-25th, Newberry-26th, Cheboygan, Emmet County-27th, County-27th, Manistee, Gr. Rapids.

Cachets at Gr. Rapids for start and finish. Covers, unsealed, to Geo. Aldich, 12½ Monroe Ave.

European Covers:

Francis J. Field reports that about 15,000 covers were carried on the First Experimental flight from London to Australia, and about 9000 on the return flight, while the second experimental flight which left London on April 25th. carried about 7000. Imperial Airways handled about 5000 covers from Kismu, addressed to England.

Round the World:

Wiley Post and Harold Gatty are scheduled to leave New York on May 29th on their attempted 10 day flight around the world.

Co-Operators:

The fine co-operation which we receive from readers is very much apreciated, and while much information reaches us TOO LATE to be of use for publication we surely appreciate the efforts of all. SIMON BOLIVAR

The following sketch of the "Liberator" was suggested by the stamps issued by Venezuela, Co-lombia, and Peru, to commemorate the centenary of the death of Bolivar.

Simon Bolivar, called the "Liberator", was born in Caracas, July 2, 1783, of a noble and wealthy family. As was customary among the wealthy families, he was sent to Madrid to complete his education. After studying law he travelled widely in Europe, married there, and returned to Venezuela, intending to devote himself to his extensive estates, but the death of his young wife from yellow fever caused him again to visit Europe. In 1809 he returned home by way of the United States. Here he be-came much interested in our republican institutions and resolved to free his own country from the despotism of Spain.

Upon Bolivar's return to Venezuela he at once joined a society of patriots, and engaged in the insurrection of Caracas, April 19, 1810. During the following year several engagements were won by the patriots, and the Spanish were forced to withdraw, but in 1812 they returned and recovered possession of Venezuela. Bolivar fled, and we next hear from him in New Grenada, (Colombia), raising a force of volunteers. With these he defeated the Spanish in several hotly contested battles, and on August 4, 1813, he entered Caracas as a conqueror and was soon made dictator of Venezuela.

The next ten years of the Liberator's life were filled with almost constant war with the Spanish forces. In 1819 New Grenada was freed from Spanish rule and added to Venezuela under the name of the Republic of Colombia. Bolivar was the first president, which office he held until a few months before his death.

After driving the Spanish forces from the north, his thoughts turned to the liberation of the southern states of Peru, Ecuador, and Bolivia. Placing himself at the head of his army, he marched upon Quito, which was soon entered by his troops. From here he turned toward Lima, which was evacuated upon his approach. The campaign was completed and the Spanish rule in South America forever broken in the decisive battle of Ayacucho, beautifully commemorated by the stamps issued by the Peruvian government in 1924.

Bolivar withdrew to Colombia, where he spent the remainder of his life endeavoring to stabilize the government and improve the condition of his people. He died on Dec. 17, 1830. He has been de-scribed as the Washington of South America. Unselfish to a high degree, he sacrificed his personal fortune for the good of the state. He was a truly great man.

LINCOLN'S HOME PHILATELIC SOCIETY EXHIBIT

The stamp exhibition held by this society May 20th to 23rd was a success in every way. About 50 frames were in the display and these were viewed by hundreds of citizens of the town as well as by the visiting delegates of the Illinois postmasters convention which held at Springfield on the same dates.

Messrs. Aubrey Cribb and Don Chamberlain of Springfield, together with Dr. C. W. Hennan and Messrs. Conrad and Zelaud of Chicago acted as judges.

The Springfield newspapers were lavish in their use of news space for the show as is attested by clippings from Dr. Homer P. Mac-Namara and Rev. Father Max J.

Father Philipp is a former Co-lumbus Stamp Club member and collectors of Columbus miss him very much at their meetings. The Illinois State Journal at Spring-field for May 24th contains an ex-Father tensive interview with Philipp, a part of which follows:

NOT ONE HAS BEEN RETURNED British Colonial packets — Money back guarantee. Finest copies, all different, no junk and many mint. 25c, 50c, $1.00 or larger. Premium with every packet. Brown, 87 Lincoln Blvd., Kenmore, N. Y.

Facts about stamp collecting, little realized by the layman, were pointed out during Springfield's stamp exhibit by Rev. Max J. Philipp, chaplain of St. John's sanitarium, who possesses a rare collection of stamps.

Rev. Mr. Philipp started saving stamps when he was 12 years old. Later, he purchased them "with money that otherwise would have gone for smoking." He reached for a stamp instead.

Regardless of how much the chaplain might have smoked, he now has a collection numbering millions of stamps that takes twelve hours to see if one is to leak at all of it.

look at all of it.

"Stamp collectors," Rev. Father
Philipp said, "help the government detect stamp counterfeiters. one is more quick to catch an imperfection in an issue of stamps than is the philatelist. The bureau of engraving is notified immediately in such instances."

Stamp collecting is the best hobby a boy can acquire, the chaplain believes, because the value of the collection grows as the boy becomes older.

PHILATELIC WEEK END AT PITTSBURGH

The Philatelic Society of Pittsburgh is planning for a big meet-ing on Saturday and Sunday, June 13 and 14, at the William Penn

For Saturday, the program includes an exhibition, in frames, a bourse, a banquet at 6:30, followed by entertainment and an auction. After that, the Pittsburgh boys have a reputation for seeing all their guests safely to bed.

On Sunday, the festivities will be continued and one need never look for something to do at a stamp meeting. Lots of stamps to buy, sell or trade and what more can a stamp collector ask for.

It is announced that the "affair" will be strictly "stag" which holds forth promise of an enjoyable time. $2.50 covers the entire cost and no one in reach of the big city need stay away. Take along a stamp and sell it if you have not got the jack to spare.

The Committee in charge Dr. K. M. Day, Harry E. Huber, August Mottlau, B. V. Imbrie and James H. Price. Those who are ac-quainted with some of these gentlemen can vouch for the fact that they have a reputation to sus-tain and that they have always been in the habit of sustaining that reputation.

Those who intend to be num-bered among those present should send reservation to Mr. B. V. Imbrie, 1313 First National Bank Bldg., Pittsburgh, not later than June 10, and we are told that everybody is welcome.

MUST BE A STAMP SHARK

A queer story comes through the United Press, from Suva, Fiji Islands, under date of May 26. You can "believe it or not" but this is the tale:

"A shark has broken up the quaint postal system of the Island of Niuafoou.

"For years a native of the island swam a mile out from shore every four weeks to meet the steamer which delivers the mail.

"The native carried with him outgoing mail and took back the incoming mail tossed overboard in a sealed tin.

"The last incoming mail was lost when a shark killed the swimmer.

Hereafter, a large canoe will be sent after the mail. "Niuafoou is about half way between Samoa and Tonga. It belongs to the kingdom of Tonga."

PESTALOZZI

A Paper Read to the Junior High School Stamp Club, Atlantic City by Jacky Kilcher, Age 14

Switzerland 1927 Pro Juventute

The stamps of Henry Pestalozzi do not commemorate a warrior, but a public benefactor, and the founder of the first orphan school.

In 1800 Napoleon the first, then the actual ruler of Europe invaded Switzerland, and after a few severe engagements, the Swiss found themselves soundly beaten, and submitted to French rule, except the little state of Unterwalden with a population of 4800. So the French general Schauenberg invaded Unterwalden with an army of 22000 men. Every man, woman and child able to carry arms went to defend their home, the battle raged for 48 hours and ended with every Swiss killed except 240 children and 80 old people.

Here is where Pestalozzi enters the story.

Pestalozzi was a descendent of a rich Swiss family of Zurich. With the aid of Friends he gathered together the poor starving orphans and started an orphan school in Stanz, and in Birrfeld near Zurich. In those schools the orphans received a home and were instructed in various trades. The idea was, that the orphans would work on the farms, attached to the schools, and so earn their own upkeep, but it did not work out as Pestalozzi expected, and he gave his whole fortune towards his ideal.

Many foreign teachers visited Pestalozzi and copied his idea, so helping the young and needy.

Pestalozzi was born in 1746 and died 1827.

The 5 and 10 centimes stamps show boys at work and study. The 15 and 30c portray the head of Pestalozzi.
